1. Course Levels

(1) Course Levels at TMU

TMU Japanese Language Course has six levels based on the CEFR¹.

Level / Learning Goal	Overview
CEFR A1 Starter Level	This course is intended for total beginners learning Japanese for the first time. Students will acquire simple expressions and phrases for everyday use and will be able to engage in basic conversations, including self-introductions and shopping.
CEFR A2 (A2.1/A2.2) Elementary Level	To be able to understand simple expressions and phrases used in daily life, to read simple texts, and to write simple letters. Level A2.2 is higher than A2.1.
CEFR B1 Intermediate Level	To be able to understand expressions and phrases used in daily life, to hold simple conversations and discussions, to read simple documents, and to write their own comments.
CEFR B2 Upper-intermediate Level	To be able to engage in complex conversations and discussions, to read texts from newspapers and magazines, and to write one's own opinions.
CEFR C1 Advanced Level	To be able to engage in professional conversations and discussions, to read complex texts in newspapers and magazines, and to write down one's own opinions in detail.
CEFR C2 Super-advanced Level	To be able to use the same level of sophisticated Japanese as native Japanese university students. Currently C2 class is not offered.

(2) How to Check Your Level

¹ CEFR: Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, teaching, assessment
<<https://www.coe.int/en/web/common-european-framework-reference-languages/level-descriptions>>

Please use the "Japanese Proficiency Self-Assessment Tool" and check which level you are placed from A1 to C2.

Japanese Proficiency Self-Assessment Tool: <https://www.nihongo-check.bunka.go.jp/>

2. Japanese Language Courses at TMU

TMU offers three types of Japanese language courses: (1) Practical Japanese; (2) Online Japanese: Living and Working in Japan; and (3) Common Language Subject. Each has its own properties and different rules regarding credits.

(1) Practical Japanese

Eligibility: Exchange students

Level: A1, A2.1, A2.2, B1, B2, C1

Method: Onsite/in-person (Minami-osawa Campus)

Credits: Only exchange students can earn credits. Official course registration procedures are required.

- ※ Graduate and research students may attend this course, but no credit will be awarded. Please inform the instructor of your intention to participate in the class.
- ※ There are two types of classes in Starter (A1) and Elementary (A2.1 & A2.2) courses: Katsudo: Language Activity and Rikai: Language Competence. It is recommended to participate in both for a thorough study. The differences between Katsudo and Rikai are as follows.

Katsudo: Language Activity	Rikai: Language Competence
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- For students who want to start using Japanese immediately.- The objective is to gain practical ability communicating in everyday situations.- Students will practice listening to and speaking Japanese a lot.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- For students who want to learn about Japanese.- The objective is to study the features of Japanese language that are necessary for communication.- Students will systematically study how Japanese is used in communication.

(2) Online Japanese: Japanese for Living and Working in Japan

Eligibility: All students

Level: A1, A2.1, A2.2, B1

Method: Online (Zoom)

Credits: No students will earn any credit.

- ※ This is a once-a-week course designed to make it easier for busy students to study Japanese. It is free of charge. Students can review and practice what you have studied in class through the apps and website linked to the textbook. You can do it at your own pace, so it's easy to keep studying Japanese. Since the courses are online, it is easy for students who belong to Hino or Arakawa Campus to join the class. If you want to participate, please apply using the application form:

<https://forms.gle/mUCunxdoYGZFLFUa6>

(3) Common Language Subject (Japanese I & II)

Eligibility: Undergraduate students

Level: JLPT (Japanese Language Proficiency Test) N1

Method: Onsite/in-person (Minami-Osawa Campus)

Credits: Only undergraduate students can earn credits. Official course registration procedures are required.

※ Some courses are open for exchange, graduate, and research students. Please ask the class instructor if you can attend the class and if you will receive credit.

3. Learning Support

(1) TMU Learning Apps for Basic Japanese

All students may use this app, but no one will receive credit. You can download the app and its content from the following website: <https://app.iculla.com/>

(2) Japanese Academic Writing Support

Japanese Language Program provides students with assistance in writing academic texts in Japanese. In one-on-one discussions with graduate student staff, students explore ways to structure their papers, choose appropriate expressions, and improve their writing. For more information, please visit the following website:

http://www.ic.tmu.ac.jp/english/study_abroad/jpacademic.html

(3) International Student Navigators

At the International Center, graduate students specializing in Japanese language education offer personalized support to international students as navigators for their Japanese language learning. Anyone can ask questions about Japanese and Japanese language learning or seek advice on course selection. No appointment is needed. On certain days, consultations are also available in languages other than Japanese.

1. レベル

(1) 日本語クラスのレベル

TMU の日本語クラスには、CEFR²の考え方に基づいて、6つのレベルがあります。

到達目標レベル	クラス内容
CEFR A1 初級レベル	初めて日本語を勉強する初学者のためのクラス。 日常生活で使われる簡単な表現やフレーズを理解し、自己紹介やショッピングなどの基本的な会話ができるようになる。
CEFR A2 (A2.1/A2.2) 基礎レベル	日常生活で使われる簡単な表現やフレーズを理解し、簡単な文書を読んだり、簡単な手紙を書いたりすることができるようになる。A2.2の方がA2.1よりレベルが高い。
CEFR B1 中級レベル	日常生活で使われる表現やフレーズを理解し、簡単な会話や議論ができるようになる。簡単な文章を読んだり、自分の意見を書いたりすることができるようになる。
CEFR B2 中上級レベル	日常生活で使われる表現やフレーズを理解し、複雑な会話や議論ができるようになる。新聞や雑誌などの文章を読んだり、自分の意見を書いたりすることができる。
CEFR C1 上級レベル	日常生活で使われる表現やフレーズを理解し、専門的な会話や議論ができるようになる。新聞や雑誌などの複雑な文章を読んだり、自分の意見を詳しく書いたりすることができる。
CEFR C2 超上級レベル	日本語ネイティブの大学生と同じレベルの高度な日本語を使うことができるようになる。現在、C2クラスは開講なし。

2. TMUの日本語コース

TMU には 3 種類の日本語コースがあります。それぞれ違う特徴があって、単位が取れるかどうかとも違います。

(1) 実践日本語

主な対象: 交換留学生

レベル: A1, A2.1, A2.2, B1, B2, C1

実施方法: 対面 (南大沢キャンパス)

単 位: 交換留学生だけが単位をもらえます。単位をもらうためには、公式な科目登録の手続きが必要です。

※ 大学院生と研究生もちろん参加できます。でも、単位をもらうことはできません。クラスに参加したいときは、教室に行って、先生にクラスに参加したいと伝えてください。

※ 入門 (A1) レベルと初級 (A2.1 & A2.2) レベルには、「かつどう」と「りかい」の 2 つがあります。両方に参加する方がしっかり勉強できておすすめです。でも、どちらか 1 つだけでもいいです。「かつどう」と「りかい」の違いは、つぎのとおりです。

かつどう	りかい
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- 日本語をすぐ使ってみたい人に。- 日常場面でのコミュニケーションの実践力をつけることが目標です。- 日本語をたくさん聞き、話す練習をします。	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- 日本語について知りたい人に。- コミュニケーションに必要な日本語のしくみについて学ぶことが目標です。- コミュニケーションの中で日本語がどう使われるか、体系的に学びます。

(2) オンライン日本語: 生活と仕事のための日本語

主な対象: 全留学生

レベル: A1, A2, B1

実施方法: オンライン (zoom)

単 位: なし (だれも単位をもらえません)

備考：忙しい学生でも日本語の勉強をしやすいように考えたコースです。クラスに参加するのは、週に1回だけです。

教科書と連動した学習アプリとwebサイトがあります。無料です。クラスで勉強したことを、アプリやwebサイトで、復習や練習できます。自分のペースでできるので、日本語の勉強をつづけやすいです。

オンラインのクラスなので、日野キャンパスや荒川キャンパスの人も参加しやすいです。参加したい人は、つぎのURLから申し込んでください。

申込先：<https://forms.gle/mUCunxdoYGZFLFUa6>

(3) 未修言語（日本語Ⅰ・日本語Ⅱ）

主な対象：学部学生

レベル：日本語能力試験N1

実施方法：対面（南大沢キャンパス）

単位：学部生は単位をもらえます。単位をもらうためには、公式な科目登録の手続きが必要です。

備考：交換留学生も履修し、単位をもらえる授業もあります。履修できるかどうか、単位がもらえるかどうかは、各授業の先生に聞いてください。単位をもらうためには、公式な科目登録の手続きが必要です。

大学院生や研究生が参加できる授業もありますが、単位をもらうことはできません。参加できるかどうか、各授業の先生に聞いてください。

3. 学習サポート

(1) TMU初級日本語学習アプリ

全ての学生が無料で利用できます。でも、だれも単位をもらえません。

使いたい人は、つぎのURLからアプリとコンテンツをダウンロードしてください。

TMU Learning Apps for Basic Japanese: <https://app.iculla.com/>

(2) 日本語アカデミック・ライティング支援

日本語のアカデミックな文章を作成する支援をしています。

どのように文章を組み立て、どんなことばや表現を選んだらいいのか等、大学院生のスタッフと一対一で話し合いながら、文章をよくする方法を考えます。

Course Title (Level)	Comprehensive Japanese (Elementary 2, language competence, A2.2) 総合日本語 (初級 2, りかい, A2.2)		Course Number	V6106 V6206	Credit	2
Instructor	TAKAMIYA Yumi	1st. & 2nd. Semester	Friday	3-4	1st Semester: Online (Zoom) for Weeks 1-3; Minami-Osawa Campus from Week 4 onward 2nd Semester: Minami-Osawa
Class direction/theme	- Acquire essential language skills (vocabulary, grammar, kanji, etc.) to communicate effectively in Japanese. - Learn about Japanese culture, reflect on your own culture, and deepen your intercultural understanding. The learning in Marugoto Elementary 2 (A2) Rikai course centers on the elements of language that support communication (vocabulary, grammar, sentence patterns, etc.). Learning points are chosen based on the Can-do objective model-conversations in Katsudo. The majority of so-called elementary level sentence patterns make up the learning points, but in the case of sentence patterns that have multiple meanings or functions, only the function needed in the Can-do conversation is featured and then practiced. In addition, the same sentence pattern will appear in a different topic and be studied again. The learning objective for Japanese characters at Elementary 2 level (A2) the learning objective is to be able to write 100% of hiragana and katakana. For kanji, the learning objective is to be able to read all newly introduced words written in kanji (170 in Elementary 2 (A2)). Elementary 2 (A2) contains a Words and Culture section. This is to encourage the study of the understanding of cultural differences through the use of words. Learners try to think not just about what should be said in different situations, but why it is said, the speaker's intentions and the response of the listener.
Knowledge/skills gained, class objectives and goals	- Can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type. - Can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows, and things he/she has. - Can interact simply provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.

Course Title (Level)	Talk and Write about Yourself (C1)			Course Number	V6117	Credit	1
Instructor	YI Jungmi	1st. Semester	Thursday	3 rd Period	Minami-Osawa Campus
Class direction/theme	When communicating in Japanese, what do you pay attention to and what is important to you? You probably pay a lot of attention to grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation and so on. Of course, these are also important in communicating something to the other person, but it is also important to know what you are communicating and why you are communicating it. It will also be important to 'listen' to what is being said. In this course, we aim to think deeply about ourselves and others through discussions and activities with others on the theme of 'I', and to revise and update our previous ideas. The course also aims to improve your Japanese language skills by conducting these processes in Japanese.
Knowledge/skills gained, class objectives and goals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You can describe specific details about yourself in fluent and coherent detail in relation to your background. - Listen to what others have to say and continue the dialogue by asking further questions and relating to your own experiences. - Through discussion with others, be able to present your own ideas about each week's theme in a coherent way, reinforcing and modifying your own views. You can reflect on the exchange of views that occurs in collaborative work with others and become aware of the values that are important to you.

Course Title	Learning Japanese through Multicultural Perspectives			Course Number	V6118 V6218	Credit	1
Instructor	TAKAMIYA Yumi	1st. & 2nd. Semester	Wednesday	2	1st Semester: Online (Zoom) for Weeks 1-3; Minami-Osawa Campus from Week 4 onward 2nd Semester: Minami-Osawa
Class direction/theme	This course offers dialog-based training aimed at developing the flexible thinking and empathetic awareness necessary for effective engagement in multicultural societies. Through the exploration of topics such as nationality, religion, gender, and language, students will acquire practical knowledge and skills applicable to intercultural communication contexts.
Knowledge/skills gained, class objectives and goals	1. Critically reflect on personal assumptions and cultural norms by recognizing that what is considered “common sense” varies across individuals and communities, and by examining both the importance of tolerance toward diverse cultures and values as well as the potential limitations of the idea that “everyone is different, and everyone is good.” 2. Demonstrate empathetic and ethical awareness of discrimination and prejudice by analyzing how these issues operate within society, overcoming indifference toward injustice that may go unnoticed until one becomes personally affected, and applying perspective-taking skills (“What if this were me?”) to guide responsible actions in everyday contexts. 3. Analyze linguistic equality and power structures by examining how privileged languages, including English, gain dominance, while critically engaging with the principle that all languages are equal. Students will deepen their understanding of language education and communication in complex linguistic environments, including multilingualism, dialects, heritage languages, Easy Japanese, sign languages, and the language development of children growing up across borders. 4. Develop effective and adaptive communication skills through dialog-based activities by actively participating in icebreakers, games, and interactive tasks that promote dialogue. Students will cultivate the willingness and ability to communicate using all available strategies, including attentive listening, appropriate eye contact, responsive attitudes, and the capacity to adjust their own language use in accordance with others’ linguistic abilities.
Class plan, contents	Week 1 “When in Rome?” Navigating Intercultural Social Skills Tolerance and Open-Mindedness Across Cultures Week 2 How to Communicate Difficult Messages: Assertion Training Intercultural Communication in Business Contexts Week 3 Identity Labels in Japan: “Japanese” and “Foreigners” Religious Beliefs and Concepts of God Week 4 Chapter 1 Presentation, Discussion Week 5 Mini Activity 1: Icebreaker Activity Week 6 Understanding Microaggressions Minority and Majority Status in Social Contexts Week 7 Universal Design: Creating Inclusive Environments Local Communities and Resistance: The Case of Okinawa Week 8 Stereotypes and Generalization Nationalism and National Identity Week 9 Chapter 2 Presentation, Discussion Week 10 Mini Activity 2: Recognizing Diversity in Everyday Life Week 11 Language Acquisition of Children Across Borders Accessible Communication through Easy Japanese Week 12 Global Communication and English as a Lingua Franca Language Variation and Social Power Week 13 Chapter 3 Presentation, Discussion Week 14 Mini Activity 3: Reflecting Your Own Values Week 15 Final Exam, Final Research Presentation, Oral Interview Examination
Teaching methods	Following an initial warm-up activity, students will engage in a sequence of structured instructional activities intended to foster critical awareness through reflective writing, assigned readings, and instructor- and student-facilitated discussions.
